KUCHEZA AFRICA 2023 APPLICATION FORM

17 - 23 APRIL 2023

The South African State Theatre invites dancers, choreographers, and dance companies to submit proposals to partake in the 2023 edition of Kucheza Afrika Festival scheduled for 17 - 23 April. The festival will focus on the three conceptual categories of dance works: Main, Young Artists Programme, and the newly added Kucheza Afrika Competition.

PROGRAMME INFORMATION SHEET:

Main

Professional contemporary choreographers are invited to apply for a commissioning fee to create and/or present new work at the KUCHEZA AFRIKA FESTIVAL 2023. Their work must premiere at the KUCHEZA AFRIKA FESTIVAL 2023 at The South African State Theatre, Pretoria.

Local and international collaborations are eligible. The production must be a minimum of 60 minutes.

Young Artists

This category invites local and international young artists that are looking for a platform to showcase their work. The South African State Theatre will provide free infrastructure plus technical support.

The production must be a minimum of 30 minutes.

Kucheza Afrika Competition

This is a new programme inviting South African Traditional dance and Pantsula dance crews/groups to partake in an elimination competition which will be running during the week of the festival with the winning crew/group announced on the closing of the festival.
